2. Guest Speakers

a. Leticia Toma: Co-Curricular Transcripts

- Toma took the General Assembly through the steps of how to fill out a co-Curricular Transcript.
- She also explained the benefits such as making students more marketable for jobs, internships, or scholarships. Toma has gotten a lot of positive feedback from companies on their opinion of the co-curricular transcripts.
- Students can stop by the Student Activities Office in SULB or go online to find the forms.
- The student activities office checks the activities rosters to make sure students are really in the position in the organization that they say they were. If the organization doesn't keep an appropriate record, the student needs to get the advisor to of the organization to complete a validation form.
- Adduci wanted to know how many activities can be added onto the co-curricular transcript. Toma said it was limitless.
- Boynes wanted to know if he could include something like helping his neighbor cleaning out his garage. Toma said no, that it has to be work done with an official organization.
- Hill told the General Assembly that he wishes that something like this was available when he was a student and he thinks it is a great idea and encourages everyone to fill one out.
- Hill thanked Toma for her time especially since the meeting time is so late at night.
